

How much calibration data does each correction need?

